Libertas Oct 11 2020 Libertas is a love story rising from the despair of slavery. Fredericka is the daughter of a White plantation owner and his Black house slave. Horace is a literate slave-companion to the son of a New York hotel baron. This first book in the Pocket Full of Seeds Trilogy follows their flight for freedom through nineteenth-century America. It was a time when runaway slaves were hunted, steamships sailed around the Horn to San Francisco, horse-tugged boats navigated the Erie Canal, a midnight tsunami struck Buffalo, Mormons sought a new Zion, and wagon trains lumbered across a continent littered with unmarked graves. Most of all, this is a story driven by an unquenchable thirst for libertas. "Brimming with excitement...a literary masterpiece!" -Debra Whiting Alexander, award-winning author and 2018 WILLA Literary Award Winner in Contemporary Fiction for Zetty

Minecraft Seeds Nov 04 2022 Minecraft seeds are a great way to immerse yourself in the world which can be played by anyone and everybody. Minecraft seeds position the user in charge of what and where they would like to play inside a current world. Minecraft seeds are unique for each edition and version of the game. Differences among consoles are in-existent regarding the seed algorithm. Both Minecraft 1.21 for the PlayStation systems, Minecraft TU30 for Xbox 360 and Minecraft CU18 have interchangeable seeds. These are different from the ones found in Minecraft 1.8.8 for PC as they use the programming language C++ instead of the infamous Java for the RNG. Minecraft PE 0.13.0 is the world in itself. As far as the world generator does not change, the seeds keep being useful after an update. The seeds we share here work for the versions stated above, but may break in the future.

The Seed Keeper May 06 2020 A haunting novel spanning several generations, The Seed Keeper follows a Dakha family’s struggle to preserve their way of life, and their sacrifices to protect what matters most. Rosalie Iron Wing has grown up in the woods with her father, Ray, a former science teacher who tells her stories of plants, of the stars, of the origins of the Dakha people. Until, one morning, Ray doesn’t return from checking his traps. Told she has no family, Rosalie is sent to live with a foster family in nearby Mankato—where the reserved, bookish teenager meets rebellious Gaby Makespeace, in a friendship that transcends the damaged legacies they’ve inherited. On a winter’s day many years later, Rosalie returns to her childhood home. A widow and mother, she has spent the previous two decades on her white husband’s farm, finding solace in her garden even as the farm is threatened first by drought and then by a predatory chemical company. Now, grieving, Rosalie begins to confront the past, on a search for family, identity, and a community where she can finally belong. In the process, she learns what it means to be descended from women with souls of iron—women who have protected their families, their traditions, and a precious cache of seeds through generations of hardship and loss, through war and the insidious trauma of boarding schools. Weaving together the voices of four indelible women, The Seed Keeper is a beautifully told story of reawakening, of remembering our original relationship to the seeds and, through them, to our ancestors.
